

LYNN ECK -- WOMAN OF THE YEAR – 2019

Lynn Eck from Branch River has been an active participant in NEWGA events for many years. She has competed in Team Play and has played multiple times in all of the NEWGA ladies events, including the Pro Ladies, the former Amateur/Eclectic, Senior (when she became of age), the Ryder Cup, Best Ball, and the Closing Scramble.

Lynn is always prompt in responding and should receive an award for being first to send in her entry or her club's entries!! She joined the NEWGA Ladies Executive Board in 2012 and served as a member –at-large. She is currently the Secretary for the Ladies Executive Board, keeping busy updating club information, representative information, recording minutes of meetings, and writing summaries of minutes.

Lynn married her high school sweetheart, Dave, on June 5th, 1976. Lynn and Dave are the parents of two children, Tyler and Kristin. They are the proud grandparents of 3 beautiful granddaughters: Olivia, Grace, and Annabelle. Lynn loves being with her family!

Lynn worked as a dental assistant before she began her career as a mother. She served as President of the Church Council of First Lutheran and is a member of the Service League. Hobbies of Lynn's include playing bridge, fishing, and golfing.

Lynn has been an active member of her golf course, Branch River. She served as Secretary on the board for many years until this past spring. She was active in the Women's League and is currently the NEWGA representative for The Golf Course at Branch River.

Lynn and her husband are spending more of their time at their home on the lake in the Elcho, WI area. She has golfed often this summer at Bass Lake CC and is working on getting their ladies interested in participating in NEWGA events. Lynn is very deserving of this award. Congratulations, Lynn!!!!
