

NEWGA 2023 Woman-of-the-Year

This year's recipient of the NEWGA Woman-of-the-Year grew up playing golf at Appleton's Butte des Morts CC and participated in NEWGA Junior events. She was part of two state championship teams for Appleton West High School and was the captain during her senior year. She proceeded to play for the University of Wisconsin at Madison where the team finished 4th in the Big Ten, which, at that time, was the highest finish for a UW team. Her senior year at Madison, she was again named as captain and was a student assistant coach the following year.

In 2001, she and her husband Bob joined Pine Hills CC in Sheboygan. She began substituting for Team Play the following year and has been a part of a team ever since. In 2010, she joined the NEWGA Executive Board. She has served as a Member-at-Large, Southern Team Play Director, Vice President, and is currently President. Additionally, she is currently the Golf Chairperson for Pine Hills CC and serves on the Course Improvement Committee.

In her golf career, she has impressively carded 6 Holes-in-One and held 13 Club Championship titles at Pine Hills along with many other victories in both singles and doubles events. To sum up, she has contributed meaningfully to every aspect of the game of golf throughout her lifetime. She is an incredibly special person and so deserving of this honor.

Let me introduce to you, the 2023 NEWGA Woman-of-the-Year, Sheli Moerchen!
